Freedom of the Waves

If the first is true, then whatever your god says becomes moral, and there's no standing beyond mere capricious, fiat declaration claims like he is necessarily "good" or "perfect" and therefore anything he commands is good and perfect are just special pleading bald assertions with no substance whatsoever. Even today, there are movements that try to promote the Ersatz substitution of foreign words deemed unnecessary with German alternatives.

Natural Science for Primary Schools 3

The first, in a manuscript now in Kassel but written by a Bavarian, belongs to the Hermeneumata tradition, but contains also some phrases and indeed what appears to be a proverbial comment about the cunning of the Bavarians as opposed to the guilelessness of the Italians. Il laisse devant lui toute la nourriture.
