Yet, how- ever much these infernal dreams may be very lowly things "bassissime cose"and considering that, as Doni claims, some dreams, in his opinion, seem to him to have a divine origin, but, like the good seed that is over- shadowed by thorns, they are not seen clearly "Alcuni altri sogni, al mio giudicio, mi par ch'abbino principio dal divino, ma, offiiscati come il buon seme dalle spine, non vengano a luce chiara"the perspective offered by demoniac visions appears to be much more open than the Augustinian premise would authorize us to believe.
